

I support this petition. It makes sense to eliminate the morse code requirement for access the high frequency RF spectrum. The US military eliminated the morse code requirement already for access to HF spectrum and so have most other Government agencies. International shipping is no longer required morse code capability either. Amateur radio is a hobby that shouldn't be anchored to a morse code requirement for access to any of the amateur radio spectrum.